

BOOK HARMONICA

Turn every novel into a horror story with this nail-biting noise.

You will need: • Paperback book

①

Hold a paperback book up to your mouth so the back cover is facing the floor and one of the shorter edges is against your lips. Grip both the front and back covers at the edges so the pages have a little air between them.

②

Put the pages of the book to your lips and blow hard. Practise with different books until you've found one that makes the worst sound. Carry it everywhere with you.

Top tip! A great way to break an awkward silence. Just say you were blowing away the dust!
